For those who doubt that God would judge America, we need only to look upon the prevalent writings, sermons, and speeches of Civil War days.

On many a defeated field there was a voice louder than the thundering of a cannon. It was the voice of God, crying, 'Let my people go.' We were all very slow in realizing it was God's voice, but after many humiliating defeats the nation came to believe it a great and solemn command. Great multitudes begged and prayed that I might answer God's voice by signing the Emancipation Proclamation, and I did it, believing we never should be successful in the great struggle unless the God of Battles has been on our side." OPERATION SAVE AMERICA

*Does God Still
Judge the Nations*

Many have asked if God will judge America. They have asked if we have gone too far to avoid God's terrible and final judgment. Let's face it. We have mercilessly killed over 50 million little baby boys and girls. We have thrown God out of school, banished Him from the schoolyard, and ripped His Ten Commandments from the walls of our schools. We have called what is evil good and what is good evil and we do not even know how to blush. We have shaken our fist in the face of Almighty God, expecting the offended deity to bless us in the midst of our dismissing Him. Billy Graham said it well, "If God does not judge America, He is going to have to apologize to Sodom and Gomorrah."

God has already judged America and is presently judging her now, desiring that we return to Him. He has given us warning after warning through prophetic utterance, signs, and judgments. God's heart for America is most perfectly expressed in His words to the church of Laodicea, "Those whom I love, I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent. Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me." Rev 3:19-20
